PORCUPINE VILLAGE

MAKING HISTORY

Here is an exclusive glimpse into what visitors will see when Porcupine Village opens! The Village put a call-out on social media for volunteers and on Saturday 21 September a huge group of local townfolk dressed in ye-olde-style garments for a publicity shoot that resulted in some gorgeous and evocative photos. Marketing Coordinator Amber Gregg was enthusiastic to share the images and said they were a taste of things to come. "It was great to have the dusty streets booming with movement once more," she said. "The volunteers dressed in period clothing from the village's drapery store and were given some 'characters' to reference." It sounds as though it was a fun gathering, with afternoon tea provided and a chance for the volunteers to share laughs and stories. Stand by for further updates as anticipation builds around the future opening of Porcupine Village, Amber told the Tarrangower Times. "Our planning application is with the state government and we are hopeful that we will get some positive news prior to Christmas." Meanwhile, the Golden Nugget at Porcupine Village is celebrating, having been named this week by the Restaurant & Catering Industry Association as the winner of the Award for Excellence in the Tourism Restaurant category. Congratulations to all!

Local Business: collaboration is key

Kerry Cain representing the Tarrangower Times.

Organiser Luz Restrepo, business owner Adrian Upward and Maree Edwards MP.

THE Village Business Expo took place on Tuesday 8 October, with a great atmosphere and great attitudes abounding at the Maldon Golf Club. Collaboration was the word of the day, with Rebecca Barnett of Maldon Bakery declaring: "if you don't have money, you need to have friends."

Hosted by Member for Bendigo West MP Maree Edwards, the opening ceremony featured an address by Hon. Natalie Suleyman MP, Minister for Small Business who said that collaborations between state and federal governments, plus councils and educational institutions, provide great supports to small and micro businesses. "It's important to have an understanding of some of these; for example, Business Victoria does mammoth work throughout Victoria." The Minister pointed to the Business Bus as being a "wealth of tools on wheels."

Expo organiser Luz Restrepo reinforced the idea of working together. "One of the most beautiful things that businesses have is voice," she said. "Governments don't know about our jobs, they don't know everything that we do." She asked attendees to write suggestions on a 'Collaboration Board' in the hope that new ideas for collaborative growth might emerge.

Businesses of all shapes held display stands, with opportunities for meeting, sharing and learning. The day featured workshops about cashflow, business legalities, technology and well-being for business owners. There were plenty of opportunities for networking, creating connections and reflection. A final panel discussion featuring representatives from state and local government pondered the recurring theme: How Government and Business Support Organisations Can Fuel Growth. Summarising the day, Luz said: "We need to work together, connections can be made, to help your business."

and resources is a huge part of the success of small businesses in a small town and that perhaps the local paper is more than just local news.

The TT acts as a conduit; it offers information about available supports and it provides a platform for promotion and publicity. Without the newspaper, businesses might not know of the new opportunities available to them and locals might not know what businesses are up to. Local papers are becoming scarce and perhaps it's worth remembering that rare things, like the gold that built this town, are valuable indeed. The Village Business Expo reinforced strongly that we should support local business and support the local paper.

Local newspaper a vital link

The Tarrangower Times held a stall at the Village Business Expo, warmly managed by Kerry Cain. The local newspaper is a small business, after all. However, the day was a great reminder that the availability of information

Sweet deal to support school

Go mango

Traditional Indian mango lassi recipe

Combine in a blender two peeled and chopped mangoes; a cup of plain yoghurt (Greek or Indian style); a quarter of a cup of milk and a teaspoon of sugar. Add a pinch of ground spice such as cinnamon, saffron or cardamom. Blend, pour and enjoy!

Corrections and clarifications

WE have a few corrections from last week's edition:

Maldon Petanque Club: We mistakenly published a Social Petanque Club report under the banner of the Maldon Petanque Club. We apologise for any confusion this may have caused. The report was unrelated to the Maldon Petanque Club.

Maldon Market Location: The location of the Maldon Market was incorrectly listed as the Bill Woodfull Reserve. The correct location was 1 Church Street, Maldon. This error occurred due to incorrect information provided by the article's author.

Crossword Repeat: Unfortunately, the crossword puzzle was the same as the previous week's. We apologise for this oversight and will ensure new puzzles in upcoming editions.

Gee, it wasn't our week! We appreciate your understanding and continued support.

Farm fined for waste water

THE operator of a Carisbrook broiler farm, who has two open applications for further developments, has been fined nearly $10,000 for mismanaged waste, the Environment Protection Authority Victoria (EPA) revealed last week.

EPA Northwest Regional Manager Paul Ratajczyk says the investigation began when a member of the public encountered a lane covered in wastewater. "The water had been used to wash down the inside of a poultry shed, which made it industrial waste from a legal point of view, and a source of biological contamination for nearby waterways," Mr Ratajczyk said. "The presence of bacteria from poultry manure made the wastewater a potential hazard to the environment and neighbouring farms."

When EPA officers inspected the Baringhup Rd site on Thursday 15 August, they found wastewater escaping from a breached evaporation dam. It was flowing across Hurses Lane and Black Lane. The inspectors traced the flow back to the dam on a property run by Pavilion Farms 3 Pty Ltd. Water samples confirmed the origin of the escaped wastewater and the EPA fined the company for unlawfully depositing waste of more than 1,000 litres via an offsite water discharge.

Pavilion Farms is the company that was involved in tense negotiations with some Baringhup locals between 2012 and 2019, relating to large-scale broiler farm proposals. It is also listed as the applicant for proposed future broiler farm developments at 70 Baringhup Road and 3280 Pyrenees Highway, Carisbrook. A spokesperson for Central Goldfields Shire said that the current applications are unlikely to be considered until early next year. The approaching local government elections mean that the council is in the caretaker period and is unable to make decisions until after the vote is complete.

Pavilion Farms has been issued a fine of $9,880 by the EPA. Mr Ratajczyk said, "Businesses must have appropriate controls in place to manage and dispose of all wastes generated by their operations, they are expected to be proactive about preventing pollution, and EPA won't hesitate to take action when pollution occurs."

Members of the public can report pollution by calling EPA's 24-hour hotline on 1300 372 842 or providing details online at epa.vic.gov.au/report-pollution/reporting-pollution.

On top of that, this week is Get Online Week (14 – 20 October), Veterans' Health Week and National Carers Week (13 to 20 October), National Nutrition Week (14 to 20 October), Children's Week (19 to 27 October) and we have also entered Australia's AI Month (14 October - 15 November). Phew! No wonder we're exhausted.

Free PT for veterans and carers: last days

All Victorian veterans, war widows and war widowers can travel free throughout Veterans' Health Week, which ends Sunday 20 October, across all bus, tram and train networks in metro Melbourne and regional Victoria. To take up the offer, veterans need to travel with either a Victorian Veterans Card – Victoria, an ex-service association or returned from active service badge, a Department of Veterans' Affairs gold or white card or a Category 'V' Victorian public transport concession card. Holders of Veterans Concession myki, EDA/TPI or War Veterans/War Widow Free Travel Pass can touch on and off as usual. Myki fares won't be charged during this period. Veterans' Health Week takes place each year across Australia to focus on the health and wellbeing of those who have served and their families.

Get online, don't be left behind

New research from digital inclusion charity Good Things Australia reveals that more than half of Australians are feeling uncomfortable keeping up with changes in technology and the internet, and one in five are struggling to stay safe online. It says the consequences of digital exclusion go far beyond inconvenience and can lead to social isolation, financial vulnerability, and even impact mental health and wellbeing. During Get Online Week (14-20 October), Aussies are encouraged to find the support they need to improve their digital skills through hundreds of free community events being held across the country. Find local events at: goodthingsaustralia.org/get-online-week.

IT'S not surprising to learn that John Marsden is passionate about language. As his appearance at the Newstead Young Writers Festival approaches this weekend, the beloved best-selling author and educator reveals to the Tarrangower Times that his fervour for words goes beyond writing and reaches back into his own childhood.

The TT asked him what he believes is the value of encouraging young people to be interested in writing. "Using words can make an incredible difference in your life," John says. "It's not just writing, it's communication." He refers to a Cornish proverb that says 'the tongueless man gets his land took,' and describes some practical ways in which language is an important tool, allowing people to advocate for themselves in medical and legal settings or avoiding scams. "People who are language-deprived can really struggle," he says.

John Marsden is most widely known for his young-adult fiction, a genre that he reportedly chose after observing that teenagers had become uninterested in reading. His books include 1987's So Much To Tell You and the wildly popular series starting with 1993's Tomorrow, When the War Began which has been reprinted over 16 times and filmed for the big screen. John's books may be fairly described as having achieved the goal of getting more young people reading. He has since broadened his attention to education at the schools he founded: Candlebark and Alice Miller.

John's approach to teaching writing is not as rigid as one might expect from someone who has been so successful with the written word. "One of the tragedies in our language is that people believe there are rules," he laments. "The truth is that all those so-called rules are just conventions." His English lessons are often filled with provocations and challenges for the students to find new ways to express their ideas. "I want the students to explore the wider sense of the language and its possibilities."

Having grown up in a more traditional educational setting, John recalls rebelling against some of the writing lessons that were given to him at school. Often, he says, he would use the tasks that were set (for example, to create a story using a given list of words on a chalk-board) to write something completely unexpected. He describes the results as mixed, and says that very little of his childhood writing survives; "only a few fragments that my mother kept." But it is clear that even as a child, John Marsden was an inventive and passionate wordsmith with strong opinions about education. Don't miss his appearances at the Newstead Young Writers Festival tomorrow! John will appear as part of the opening panel about 'The Joy of Writing' from 10am on Saturday 20 October, and is running workshops for young people throughout the day. ## A Sign of the times

Some weeks ago I rang to register a small burn off in our paddock. During the course of the information sharing the operator advised that our nearest intersection was Mountview Court.

Mountview Court only exists on Google Maps. It was a proposed planning application that didn't proceed. The nearest thing to Mountview Court is a private driveway off our road.

I was so astounded I didn't respond and was grateful I didn't require an ambulance.

Weeks later, I emailed Parks Vic to advise of some dumped rubbish. It was just off Woodlocks Lane. Parks Vic emailed back requiring further instructions. On Google Maps, Woodlocks Lane is now Langs Lane.

What is more the Mount Alexander Shire have signposted it as such. Other apps still refer to it as Woodlocks Lane including the information for the Rail Trail.

Should we be allowing these changes to happen without question?

I wondered why a member of the Woodlock family contacted me to ask what had happened to their lane. Their legacy in Maldon. A family that had lived here for generations, owned the land around the lane and their family home still stands across Allans Road.

Is it right for the Shire to endorse whatever Google Maps proposes?

How do we correct these changes?

Historic Hill Climb returns to Maldon for 95th anniversary event

OVER 100 competitors from across South Eastern Australia will converge on Maldon this weekend on October 19 and 20 for the annual Innes Motors Historic Hill Climb at Mt Tarrengower, marking the 95th anniversary of the first event on the hill.

Hosted by the Bendigo Car Club and the Historic Motorcycle Racing Association of Victoria, the two-day event will feature cars and motorcycles built between the 1920s and the early 1980s. With vehicles representing British and European manufacturers, as well as a variety of Japanese, American, and Australian makes, there's something for every motoring enthusiast to enjoy.

Butts Reserve will transform into the pit paddock for the weekend, where spectators can wander through to admire the machines and chat with their owners. The course runs along the Mt Tarrengower Lookout Road from Butts Reserve to the Poppet Head at the summit.

In addition to the thrilling hill climb, a large motoring display will showcase a variety of historic vehicles, including a noteworthy late-1960s Hill Climb special featuring twin VW engines, which has won the Australian Hill Climb Championship multiple times.

The event kicks off with practice sessions at 12 pm on Saturday, followed by official timed runs starting at 9 am on Sunday. Don't miss this unique opportunity to witness a piece of motoring history in action!

New worker housing may help crisis

CEO Mount Alexander Shire Council Darren Fuzzard, Maree Edwards MP and MD Don Smallgoods Will Ursell.

A partnership between the State Government and the largest employer in Castlemaine to build new housing for workers will reportedly improve rental availability in the region. Member for Bendigo West Maree Edwards MP joined with the Managing Director of DonKRC (formerly Castlemaine Bacon Factory) on Friday 11 October to announce that funding from the 'Regional Worker Accommodation Fund' (RWF) will contribute to the building of new homes on Farnsworth Street, Castlemaine.

Ms Edwards said that workers moving into the new housing will free up homes for other local renters. "I think there is a flow-on effect; it opens up opportunities for others," she said.

The RWF is designed to boost affordable housing for workers and their families across Victoria and in Castlemaine has resulted in this project that the partners hope will also address the shortage of affordable housing.

Mount Alexander Shire Council (MASC) CEO Darren Fuzzard said of the multi-partner initiative: "Our council's been very focused on trying to improve the availability and affordability of housing for many years. These are not cheap initiatives to undertake and it takes a lot of people to make things like this happen."

Construction of the new homes is not expected to commence until 2025, but the announcement comes as DonKRC heads into a busy period before Christmas. Managing Director, Will Ursell, pointed out that the company already offers a variety of options for workers, including a busy shuttle bus from the train station and existing homes in the town. "There's a lot of housing that we're already involved in to support the business," he said. "This project allows us to bring in more skilled workers." He described the proposed homes as a combination of single and double story kit homes built in Victoria and delivered by a Bendigo supplier.

Regarding housing in the shire, Mr Fuzzard said that MASC is unique in that it has dedicated staff working on the issue. He said it must be approached from various angles. "This is one solution and it's one of many that we need. We're trying to get a better mix," he said.

VCAT zone decision for Derby Hill

THE Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) has directed Mount Alexander Shire to issue a Certificate of Compliance to the owner of the former Blue Light Camp to enforce its existing use as a 'youth camp'. The published decision indicates that a hearing took place on Thursday 29 August and the order was made on Tuesday 24 September.

The Mark Ward Property Group, which owns the Mill Markets at Daylesford and Geelong, acquired the land known as Derby Hill in early 2023, after the Blue Light Foundation sold the popular school camp. At the time, the Group announced on social media and its website that "the complex will house accommodation for at least 80 people with the prospect of future development to double that figure," and indicated that the plan was for worker and tourist accommodation.

The dispute at VCAT arose after Mount Alexander Shire Council refused to issue a certificate of compliance to use the site for the purpose of 'accommodation'.

The VCAT decision indicated that while the direction to denote the site's use as a 'youth camp' is potentially a stepping stone to a higher allocation, such as 'accommodation' as requested, the process to determine existing use rights is vigorous and requires 'higher levels of proof' than the applicant provided.

The evidence presented at the hearing convinced VCAT that the site had been altered and tailored between 2008 and 2023 to suit youth activities, thus reinforcing the existing use. In its summary, VCAT pointed out that the land is zoned Public Conservation and Resource (PCRZ), and that the Mount Alexander Planning Scheme indicates that the use of 'Accommodation' is a prohibited use on PCRZ zoned land. Mount Alexander Shire Council and Mark Ward Property Group have been approached for comment.

Art Gallery Visit.

Last term grade 5/6 were lucky enough to visit the Cascade Gallery in Maldon as part of our Gotcha rewards. The grade reached 200 Gotcha cards for exemplary behaviour both in and out of the classroom. Students in each grade at Maldon Primary choose what rewards they want when reaching a milestone. In the grade 5/6 classroom, all students voted to attend the local art gallery and then have ice cream at the local ice creamery. Students were very impressed with the current art display by local artist David Moore. In term 4 a lucky group of students will get to do art classes at the gallery as part of our school's Clubs program.

Camp Fun In Daylesford!

Last week the younger students at Maldon Primary attended the grade 1/2 camp at Boomerang Ranch in Daylesford. The camp was a blast with treasure hunting, exploring the local creek, cubby building, horse riding and a disco dance. The students arrived at school at 8.50am and left at 9.15am, to arrive at Boomerang Ranch at 10am.

When the class arrived at Boomerang, they unpacked bags and set up their rooms. After that they ate some morning tea and then moved on to the first rotation.

There were three rotations, in those rotations they were doing horse riding, cubby building and damper making.

After rotations the whole group participated in a treasure hunt in teams. The whole camp was a huge success.

We asked some students what their favourite activity was, here are the results:

ELKE: Elke enjoyed horse riding because it was her first time riding one.

DARCY: Darcy enjoyed horse riding because it brings him memories.

CLEMENTINE: Clem enjoyed horse riding because it was relaxing and fun.

It sounds like horse riding was a huge hit.

Bush Kinder Smoking Ceremony.

Hattie, grade 5 with her cousins.

Karen, grade 6, with her brother Charles.

On Friday 20 September the grade 5/6 students joined Maldon Kinder for a Bush Kinder session at the North British Mine. Ray our local crossing supervisor and Uncle Rick our local elder shared with us local insights and teachings. Uncle Rick conducted the smoking ceremony, which we all got to take part in. This has been one of many activities we have been involved in with the kinder students, such as our Book week dress-up parade and Easter hat-making.

Maths Morning.

On Thursday, 19 September, we had a math morning where parents could come in and participate in math tasks with their kids. We used our new math curriculum, where we had an opening task called a launch, then we had a main task and finally, an exit slip. The students loved teaching their parents about angles, grouping and much more.

The preps first activity was a warm up game called Tenzies, which helps focus on number facts. They then went into their main task which was about collecting and representing data with the bar graph. Here are a few perspectives about the morning from the P/1 students.

NED: I played Tenzies with my mum. Tenzies is where you play a game and you have to make 10 with all the dice. I also liked that Alisa said I could have a cuddle with my mum.

ROSIE: We collected data, it was super fun. I found it quite easy. My mum and brother came in.

1/2

EMILY: We got out dot books and played some math games together.

JAYDA: I played warm up games with my parents.

HENRY: I made a scale and counted up votes.

3/4

In  $\frac{3}{4}$ , we had our warm-up game called the product game, where kids have to get five in a row. Then they did their launch, where they had to figure out how many seats and how many cars it takes to fit 128 people from one place to another.

DARCY: My favourite part was the fluency games.

HARRY: My favourite part was the launch.

5/6

In 5/6, we did a math game called Round to 100. We had a deck of cards, and we picked up cards and we could plus them or times them to our existing number. We had to get the closest to 100; if we went over, we lost.

Everyone had a great time teaching their parents math games.

FOR as long as I can remember Galahs have used this perfect hollow in a Yellow Gum as a spring nest site. Around Newstead Galahs start inspecting hollows in late winter, lay their eggs about now, with the youngsters fledging before Xmas – so the birds are 'renting' for about a third of the year. I'm sure there are other short-term occupants such as sugar gliders, microbats and an owl-nightjar or two.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

TOWER METAL POLISH

RICHARD Dennis Stacey was born at Brokenback near Baringhup in 1877 and worked for much of his life as a miner. He also had an inventive bent and applied for patents related to rock drills and the moulding of concrete pipes. He married Margaret Herbert in 1907 and together they had five children.

In May 1922 the Tarrangower Times reported that Stacey had pegged out a claim at Tarrangower behind the Mount. The site contained a deposit of magnesite, a form of magnesium carbonate. Samples had been analysed and were found to be of a high quality. A representative of the Florite Works in North Melbourne, which used over 100 tons of magnesite each year to produce magnesium compounds, visited the site and offered to buy a railway truck full of the mineral.

There is no evidence that Stacey was able to complete the order but in January 1924 he applied for a mining lease over about nine acres of Crown land in the district of Tarrangower west of Cookman's Reef. He proposed to mine for magnesite and expected to spend £100 on the venture.

Five months after Stacey applied for his mining lease local merchants Dabb & Co advertised 'Tower Metal Polish' in the Tarrangower Times. The product was described as being made in Maldon from a local mineral by the Maldon Polish Company. It sold for eight pence a cake and its catchy slogan was 'Tickle the Metal with Tower and it smiles without tarnish'. The advertisements only appeared for eight weeks in June and July 1924.

Tower Polish was made of magnesite and was sold in blocks the size of a bar of soap. The paper wrappers featured a logo depicting the Mount Tarrangower Tower that was constructed just before the product was launched. Local printer Ernest Whitlock produced the wrappers. Apart from being a general metal polish it was also recommended for cleaning glass and white shoes. The Tower Polish trademark was officially registered in October 1924. Tower Polish was probably only produced for a short period but stocks of it may have continued to be held by local businesses such as Brooks' Store in Templeton Street up until the 1970s.

The site of Richard Stacey's magnesite lease is probably on the Western Track just west of Back Mount Road and north of South Parkins Reef Road. The site is listed on the Victorian Heritage register as the Maldon Magnesite Shaft. It includes a shallow shaft about 1.8 metres deep and several small shallow holes in the bank of a dry creek.

BACK AT THE HELM

HERE we were again, full of enthusiasm as to what the cards would offer for the week's play as we gathered together and quite sure we would be 'back at the helm' with our partner, making every trick a winner!! Steering to victory is not an easy course, we soon found out, as we settled at the tables to view the hands on offer.

Following the computing of the players 'on board', Captain Danny announced the drawn partners for the afternoon.

It was great to have Danny 'back at the helm' after being ashore for a couple of weeks. We quickly organised ourselves at the respective tables and it was 'ships away' as we journeyed through what was to be the rocky journey ahead!!

Some of the cards made it relatively easy to make a game bid with the odd small slam bid and won by Captain Danny I believe! There were of course the low point hands with a 'yarborough' thrown in as we tried to keep steady and 'roll with the waves' throughout the afternoon.

At the conclusion of play it was not long before Captain Danny and Able-bodied Seaman Ken had the results tallied and entered into the computer ready for the announcement of the place getters.

It was not a surprise to hear that Captain Danny, along with Head Steward Aileen, were the winners with 52 points.

The duo made the best of every turn of the cards to get some really good scores and send the rest of us back to our 'cabins', you could say. Newstead Jo and Kevin managed to keep a steady course to earn second place with 49 points; Annie and Mary were third and only one point away with 49 points. Maree and Ken managed fourth place with 35 points, having just escaped from 'scrubbing the decks' duties! As for the rest of us, it was back to general duties as the 'top end' enjoyed their victories! Well done to all.

The afternoon tea provided from the 'galley' was enjoyed by all, especially the freshly made cakes on offer and we thank Crew Member Lyn for her efforts.

We will be back next week, and it will be 'All Aboard' for another journey with the cards! Perhaps more spinach, as Pop-Eye enjoyed, is what we need!

Whatever your age group or skills please feel free to join us each Thursday 1pm to 4.30pm to help us in our endeavours to

STORIES FROM THE... MALDON VINTAGE MACHINERY &

MUSEUM

The mine of information

SCRATCH a bit and discover what lies beneath the surface.

This is the most important exhibit in the museum, the mine. Gold mines are the reason Maldon is here, the reason that Melbourne, even Australia became what it is now.

At the height of the gold rush Bendigo was the richest city in the world, that's a big statement.

Melbourne was the second largest city in the British Empire, after London. Melbourne was basically the port for the goldfields.

Back to the mine. Yesterday I met another really interesting identity at the Museum, Michelle Ross.

Michelle is a true enthusiast. She is one of those people who obviously has a passion and is driven by it.

Her particular passion is the history of gold mining. Her other passion is her two sons, who were desperately trying to drag her away. She's also pretty good at multitasking.

Have a look at Michelle's web page goldfieldsguide.com.au or her YouTube channel Goldfields Guide. This article nearly didn't get written because I couldn't stop watching.....

The museum holds quite a few authentic relics from the early gold days. To my untrained eye, they look interesting, but with Michelle's amazing knowledge, they all come to life, almost like Ben Stiller's Night at the Museum (obviously, that was the message of the movie).

The mine exhibit is partly constructed on a real mine shaft. When they were digging it out, they came across an 'adit' (mining terminology for a service shaft), it's yet to be fully explored. The museum is basically on the site of the Great Western Mine, which was 1,100 feet or about 300 metres deep. Mt Tarrangower is about 250 metres high from its base (569 metres above sea level), to put that in perspective. It produced about 63,000 ounces of gold, or about two tons. Again, to make that more meaningful, 63,000 ounces is worth $245,700,000 today.

That's just one mine, in Maldon!

Bendigo produced around 650 tons of gold during the gold rush. I don't have enough zeros in my calculator for that. Again, the richest city in the world.

So, you can see what all the fuss was about.

I keep getting distracted. Back in the mine exhibit, the relics include:

- A Kibble bucket, which was used to transport equipment and sometimes miners in and out of the mine.
- Safety cages, which were basically lifts, but with spring loaded arms which would activate if the cable broke.
- A California pump, which used a long continuous belt with blocks attached, moving inside a square tunnel, wound by hand which would transfer water away from the base of the mine
- Cradle with sluice, which was used in the very early days, just by shovelling gravel in the top and then tipping water through the sluice which traps the heavier gold and lets the waste flow away. This was for alluvial gold found in creeks.

Most of the relics came from the now closed Carmans Tunnel mine on the south side of town.

The more I learn about the gold mining, the more I realise how little I know and how skilled the early prospectors were. My great grandfather was involved in the gold rush, up in the Victorian Alps. That is only three generations before me, a very short time in historic terms. Here in Maldon we are still living and working in buildings of the time and by just walking around we can see the remnants of all that activity.

In the museum shop, there are lots of brochures and guidebooks to help you find the archaeology around town, or simply go online and have a look at Michelle's sites.

The hard work is being done by the amazing members of the museum, and they are just waiting to answer your questions with a friendly smile!

Travellers Place relocates to Maryborough!

First travel expo set for October

AFTER 20 years of serving clients in Upwey, Travellers Place, a family-owned Travel Agency, has found a new base of operations in Maryborough. The business, which weathered the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, remained in hibernation from 2020 until its relocation in 2023.

Owners Tina and Craig were drawn to the Maryborough area through frequent visits and strong community ties in the Dunolly township. In 2022, they decided to sell their Belgrave home and move permanently to Dunolly. While their home is in Dunolly, they've chosen Maryborough as the ideal location for their business. With land purchased in the region, construction is set to begin on their new property next year.

Tina, who has over 20 years of experience in the travel industry and has travelled extensively, continues to bring her expertise to Travellers Place. Earlier this year, the business welcomed Mel as an adult trainee Travel Consultant, and she has quickly become an integral part of the team. "Mel has been an absolute asset to the business," Tina shared.

Travellers Place has received immense support from Maryborough and surrounding towns since its reopening, and to show their appreciation, the agency will host its first Travel Expo on Saturday 19 October at the Maryborough Highland Society. The event will run from 11am to 3pm. Attending the Expo is a number of travel experts featuring brands that cover the world of travel. This is a great opportunity for people attending to plan their next adventure. Tina and Mel will also be available to discuss your future travel plans.

Travellers Place is located at 147 High Street, Maryborough, and can be contacted at 441 07 053 or via email at enquiries@travellersplace.com.au.

Library News

Book Launch at the Athenaeum Library.

Friday 25 October, 10.30am

THE library is proud to support local authors Denise Main and Ian Chisholm to launch their novel Voices of The Whipstick. During the Victorian COVID-19 2020 long winter lockdown, Denise and Ian began writing together, and Voices of The Whipstick came into being and was published in late 2023.

Please join us for a morning of inspiration at the Maldon Athenaeum Library, 97 High Street, Maldon (next to the Post Office). Morning Tea is provided, gold coin donation.

Here is a brief synopsis of Voices of the Whipstick, described as a tender and deeply moving novel that explores what can befall those who lose what they love most.

Mick Tranter was born and raised at the edge of the ancient Whipstick Forest, north of Bendigo. When the outbreak of WW2 interrupts his active rural lifestyle, he joins the AIF, and on his last night of leave, he meets and falls in love with a young woman at a Saturday night dance. Love letters and a photo of her go with him to the battlefields of New Guinea and become his talisman. He experiences the harrowing brutality of jungle warfare, only to be posted as missing in action and all communication is lost with his girl and his family. Later, he is found ill and wounded. He survives the war but returns home in a fragile mental state. Despite the love and care from his mother and his best friend, he is haunted by guilt and shame and enduring sadness over the loss of the girl he loves. He retreats to his beloved Whipstick Forest, but his troubled mind, not relieved by reclusiveness, worsens until he has an epiphany that sets him on the path to atonement.

The authors:

Denise Main was raised in Bendigo and graduated from the Northern District School of Nursing. She was appointed Community Health Nurse at the Eaglehawk and Long Gully Community Health Centre, one of the first community health centres in Australia. Her experiences endeared the community to her and provided the many stories she had the privilege of hearing. Her first manuscript, Mission: Angela, a spy/historical fiction novel, was published in 2022.

Ian Chisholm was born in Swan Hill and completed his secondary education at Maryborough High School. After completing a Graphic Design Diploma at Bendigo School of Mines he graduated from the Technical Teachers College in Melbourne and began a career as a secondary art teacher. Writing began seriously when recalling and writing what eventually became A Collection of Imperfect Memories of a Life Half Remembered. After many years he renewed his acquaintance with Denise Main and a deep friendship formed through their many mutual interests. It was their shared interest in writing that prompted them to co-write the manuscript which became Voices of the Whipstick.

Book Reviews

Verity by Colleen Hoover, 2018

Lowen Ashleigh is a struggling writer on the brink of financial ruin when she accepts the job offer of a lifetime. Jeremy Crawford, husband of bestselling author Verity Crawford, has hired Lowen to complete the remaining books in a successful series his injured wife is unable to finish.

Lowen arrives at the Crawford home, ready to sort through years of Verity's notes and outlines, hoping to find enough material to get her started. What Lowen doesn't expect to uncover in the chaotic office is an unfinished autobiography Verity never intended for anyone to read. Page after page of bone-chilling admissions, including Verity's recollection of what really happened the day her daughter died.

Lowen decides to keep the manuscript hidden from Jeremy, knowing its contents would devastate the already grieving father. But as Lowen's feelings for Jeremy begin to intensify, she recognises all the ways she could benefit if he were to read his wife's words. After all, no matter how devoted Jeremy is to his injured wife, a truth this horrifying would make it impossible for him to continue to love her.

The Morning Star by Karl Ove Knausgaard, 2020

It's a normal night in August. Literature professor Arne and artist Tove are with their children at the resort in southern Norway. Their friend, Egil, a driver by day, is staying in a cabin nearby. Kathrine, a priest, is on her way home from a seminar, the journalist Jostein is out on the town, and his wife Turid, who is an assistant nurse, has a night shift.

Above them all, a huge star suddenly appears in the sky. No one, not even the astronomers, knows for sure what kind of phenomenon it is. Is there a star burning itself out? Why then has no one seen it before? Or is it a brand new star? Slowly the interest in the news subsides, and life goes on, but not quite as before, for unusual phenomena begin to occur on the fringes of human existence.

The Nancys by R.W.R. McDonald, 2019

Tippy Chan is 11 and lives in a small town in a very quiet part of the world - the place her Uncle Pike escaped from the first chance he got as a teenager. Now Pike is back with his new boyfriend Devon to look after Tippy while her mum's on a cruise.

Tippy is in love with her uncle's old Nancy Drew books, especially the early ones where Nancy was 16 and did whatever she wanted. She wants to be Nancy and is desperate to solve a real mystery. When her teacher's body is found beside Riverstone's only traffic light, Tippy's moment has arrived. She and her minders form The Nancys, a secret amateur detective club.

But what starts as a bonding and sightseeing adventure quickly morphs into something far more dangerous. A wrongful arrest, a close call with the murderer, and an intervention from Tippy's mum all conspire against The Nancys. But regardless of their own safety, and despite the constant distraction of questionable fashion choices in the town that style forgot, The Nancys know only they can stop the killer from striking again.

The Nancys is gripping and glorious, a heart-warming novel for anyone who's ever felt they were on the outside looking in. At its heart it is about the family we make and how we must summon the courage to face the truth, no matter what the cost may be.

IN MALDON TODAY RADIO PROGRAM

TODAY Janet and Dean, managers of the Welshmans Reef Caravan Park, will need all their wits about them as they lock horns with Loz and Stevo.

Last Friday Nancy and Mike had the delight of sparring with two wonderful local thespians who are about to star in the Cathouse Players' Trap for a Lonely Man at the Kyneton Masonic Centre. Graham Pitts OBE and Michael Treloar talked about how they got started in acting: Graham at the Sydney Ensemble Theatre and Michael at the Melbourne Theatre Company. We discussed the play without actually revealing the ending and were treated to an impromptu performance of the opening scene. It is on from Friday 18 October to Sunday 27 October. To book trybooking.com/CURGO.

Next Friday, with the Folk Festival almost upon us, EC and Ann will gather the goss from Folkie prima donna Pam Lyons. And it's time for Maree Edwards to update listeners on state politics.

Doggos OF THE Goldfields

Introducing our readers to their local doggies and what makes their tails wag!

TT: Monty! It's a bit chilly this morning, isn't it?

Monty (Terrier Cross): Chilly? Please. I'm 13. I've seen things.

TT: So, what sets you apart from other dogs?

Monty: Well, for starters, I'm the boss. Got three other dogs at home, but let's be real—they're Italian Greyhounds. I tolerate them, but I'm the senior dog. I run the show.

TT: Oh, so you're the alpha?

Monty: Obviously. Age before beauty, right?

TT: Any favourite toys?

Monty: Ah, yes, my beloved green plastic phone. I wait until the perfect moment in the afternoon, then my human knows—it's playtime. They throw it, I bring it back. Classic.

TT: How do the Greyhounds feel about the phone?

Monty: They're clueless. Too busy being sleek and speedy to appreciate fine toy craftsmanship. I don't mind. More phone time for me.

TT: And how do you feel about your name, Monty?

Monty: I was a rescue from the Lost Dogs Home. They thought Monty suited me. I agreed—it's distinguished, don't you think?

TT: Very fitting. What's your morning routine like?

Monty: Every morning, I follow my human around until they get the hint: Walk time. I've got a schedule to keep.

TT: Sounds like you've got everything under control, Monty!

Monty: Always do.

Monty is our Dog of the Week.

2025 Calendars

THE Maldon Museum & Archives Calendar for 2025 has just been released and is available now from the Maldon Newsagents, from the Museum during open hours, or by ringing 0427 752 598.

Boneseed – is that a weed?

Small Boneseed plants are easy to identify and pull out by hand.

Boneseed with yellow daisy-like flowers and toothed-edged leaves.

YES, Boneseed (Chrysanthemoides monilifera) is classified as a Weed of National Significance (WONS) across Australia and as a 'Regionally Prohibited' noxious weed in the North Central Catchment (our region) in Victoria. It was introduced from South Africa to Australia as an ornamental garden plant around the late 1800s and has become an extremely invasive environmental weed, spreading from gardens into native environments across southern Australia. It's now spreading very quickly within the Mount Alexander Shire.

Please remove Boneseed if you find it in your garden or on your property, as it very easily spreads into our native bush. Like all weeds, it's a problem because it displaces native plants, reducing native biodiversity in our natural environment. Dense infestations virtually eliminate the growth of native understorey plant species and reduce the growth of native shrubs and trees, which negatively affects our native birds and animals by altering their habitat, ecosystem and essential food chain.

Boneseed is a woody shrub growing to around two metres high and wide, comes from the daisy family and produces typical 'daisy-like' bright yellow flowers in late winter to spring (see photo). Its leaves are a distinct green, oval-shaped with irregularly toothed edges. It produces hard, round seeds during summer, which are spread by animals such as birds and foxes, as well as through water, garden refuse and soil movement.

Boneseed has shallow roots which makes it easy to hand-pull small plants (see photo) at any time of the year, which can be left to decompose on the ground. Larger plants need herbicide application by using 'cutting and painting' the stumps, which is best done when plants are actively growing. For very dense and large infestations, spraying or burning may also be necessary.

Friendly Ford fanatics

MAIN Street Maldon was treated to an informal parade of early Ford Falcons on Saturday, as a stream of gleaming colour glided through town.

The 23rd Early Falcon Nationals, an Australia-wide classic car enthusiasts club event, took place over the weekend in Bendigo with a day drive to Maldon for lunch. Around 100 vehicles parked in town while their occupants dined and enjoyed the sunny shopping weather. Many were hunting for attire or accessories in a hue of gold, to suit the theme of the planned Saturday dinner. It was a congenial bunch of proud car enthusiasts and a joy to have them visit Maldon. When asked whether the club members connect about topics other than vehicles and maintenance, one visitor cheerfully retorted: "We just talk about cars... maintenance? They're Fords, they don't need any!"

Going home in a divi van!

Kevin and Ann Diener had travelled from Meadows in the Adelaide Hills to attend the Early Falcon Nationals event... in their own 1964 police divisional van, originally used to carry prisoners or offenders. Kevin was proud to be photographed with the van in Main Street, and explained that it was one of multiple Fords in his collection. "It's a genuine ex-Victorian police vehicle that I bought 25 years ago and I believe it's the only original one remaining in existence," he said.

Despite being a Russell Street original that would not be out of place in the iconic 1960s/70s TV show, Homicide, Kevin said the car has not often been used for film and television appearances. It can only be seen on screen in a 2020 production. "It was used in the movie Escape from Pretoria. Daniel Radcliffe has been in the car; Harry Potter!" Kevin exclaimed.

Early Falcons cruising down Main Street.

Kevin and Ann said it was a lovely drive from South Australia, describing it as a "comfortable cruise" in their quirky old car. Most people who have experienced a drive in a divi - or divvy - van did not do so by choice, but Kevin said he could not resist the opportunity to own this one. "I love the old falcons, they have been a passion of mine for a long time," he said. "And when this came up I just had to have it!"

Sailing Report

THE Sailing Season officially started on Saturday 5 October and was scheduled to begin with the Alan Carson Memorial Commodore's Cup. A good number of competitors arrived at the club but sadly the weather gods intervened.

In the interest of safety the Race Officer of the Day declared racing abandoned. The Commodore's Cup will be rescheduled for later in the season. Somewhat disappointing for the Carson family members who had arrived to watch the race however safety of competitors and visitors takes priority.

The following weekend (12 October) there was a marked improvement in the weather conditions and 13 boats took to the water and racing was successfully completed. Happy sailors all!

Over both these weekends we were delighted to host 'on-water training' for the SES. Crews and instructors came for various parts of the state including Manningham, Pakenham, Kyabram, Foostcray and Rochester.

Maldon Bowls Club

LAST Saturday, Maldon Bowls Club started our Saturday pennant season with an away game against last year's premiers, Maryborough Highland, on their home green.

Maldon's team of new skipper Wes, Eric, Cameron and Ellen had a slow start against a very strong opposition. After 10 ends Highland led 17 to 7. Over the last 11 ends Maldon scored 8 shots to trail 15 to 26 after 20 ends. On the final end Maldon scored a 6 to finally lose narrowly 21 to 26. In the final tally for the day this final score of 6 proved very handy.

Team 2 of Geoff, Peter, Trevor and Phillip got off to a great start to lead 15 to 4 after 10 ends. Over the last 11 ends they held off the opposition to win 22 to 14.

As the above teams finished first it was up to the team of Annette, Mike, Jim and Ken to hold their nerve and with a 3 shot overall lead to cement a Maldon team victory. This team won 12 of 21 ends and with 2 ends to go trailed 15 to 17. In a very tense finish Maldon scored a 2 and 2 to give Maldon a 4 shot victory. Total points for Maldon were 14 points to 2. Next week we play away again at Dunolly.

Maldon teams continue to play in district competitions. This week two teams played at Campbells Creek.

Don't forget our AGM is being held this Sunday 20 October at 11am. A BBQ lunch will be provided.

Tonight is our Community BBQ evening from 5.30pm with live music by Arty-Rex. Come along and join in the fun of bowling, music and some great raffle prizes.

Good Bowling all.

Maldon Pétanque Club

*Petanque is for everyone
Our two Maldon groups are not one*

PLEASE note, the Social Petanque Group report appeared in last week's TT under the Maldon Petanque Club banner and logo. The two groups have very friendly relations and, in their own ways, promote the noble game of Petanque but operate independently.

After missing play last fortnight through rain, it was a pleasure to see the sun shining and providing a bit of warmth. We were happy to welcome Karen Milner, who came for a come-and-try day; in accordance with our advertised welcome, she was presented with a bottle of MPC White.

Our scoring team, led by Sue Ackland, did a great job, and their figures showed a club record. The only player to win three games was our teenage player Memphis; she showed all of us oldies how it is done. For those winning two games, the fortnightly prizes went to Len Hall with 15 points, followed by Phil Hopley and Richard Leach, both with 10 points.

Coming up is the Spring Challenge for the Big Black Boule against Castlemaine U3A to be played on our pistes at St Brigid's on Friday 15 November with a 2pm start. Let's hope we can keep our excellent record in these games.

Check us out on our new website maldonpetanqueclub.com.au.

Our next fortnightly games, weather permitting, will be held on Sunday 27 October at 1pm on the St Brigid's pistes.

Please remember to support our sponsors: Community Bank Maldon & District and Cantwell Property - if you are looking for somewhere to dwell, try Cantwell.

Great to see Sandy back on the piste.

Maldon Golf Club

FOR the first Saturday over the past month, enjoyable golfing conditions welcomed golfers and without the rain, the wind and the chilly conditions, golfers had a day to enjoy the fairway grasses still greening up the course.

A good number of golfers competed for the October Monthly Medal event. A great round of golf resulted in a very popular win to Amanda Fedorowicz, who will now play other Monthly Medal winners: Ryan Mulholland, Glyn Milner, Bruce McGregor, Steven Moore, John Arnold and Bill Moore in the Medal of Medalists final on Saturday 2 November this year.
