Actors Helen Gramberg, Frank Sartore, Mark Fuller, Maggie Browne, Michael Treloar and Graham Pitts.

A new play by Cathouse Players is set in France and will be performed in Kyneton, but its star performers are Maldon and Castlemaine locals. 'Trap for a Lonely Man' is an intriguing mystery featuring familiar faces such as Graham Pitts, Michael Treloar, Mark Fuller, with Helen Gramberg and Maggie Browne.

The Hitchcockian suspense is high in this 1960 comedy-mystery by French playwright and actor, Robert Thomas. Directed by Cathouse Artistic Director Bette Sartore, it features a man who believes his wife has been replaced by an imposter, with the kind of twists and surprises that will make an audience gasp. "It's a cracker of a play," Bette says. The producers hope that audiences will keep their lips sealed about the play's thrilling conclusion.

The dedicated performers have been working hard on the pacy dialogue and high-tension interactions, enacting one cliff-hanger after another. The play keeps audiences guessing until the very end.

After preparing for weeks in its custom rehearsal studio, the group has a unique way of transporting the set to the performance venue. "The set is taken across on horse float," laughs actor and committee member Maggie Browne. "We build the stage, proscenium arch, curtains, everything," Maggie says.

The play runs for six shows only, with wine, cheese and nibbles served at Friday evening performances, while the matinee interval will be a fancy affair featuring 'High Tea with Bubbles'.

With such great local talent involved, a gripping plot and a welcoming company, there's no reason to miss this fun night at the theatre; just don't give away the ending!

'Trap for a Lonely Man' at Kyneton Masonic Centre, 7 Yaldwyn Street West, Kyneton. Friday 18 October to Sunday 27 October. Bookings: trybooking.com/CURGO or visit: cathouseplayers.com.au.

Shining a light on Maldon sports

State and Federal MPs, Mount Alexander Shire Council representatives and the Maldon Football Netball Club gather to turn on the lights at Bill Woodfull Recreation Reserve.

NEW lighting was officially launched at Bill Woodfull Recreation Reserve last week as Maldon's footy and netball teams trained for finals. State Member for Bendigo West Maree Edwards, Federal Member for Bendigo Lisa Chesters, Mount Alexander Shire Council representatives and the Maldon Football Netball Club (MFNC) gathered on Thursday 5 September to click the switch on new oval and court lighting.

Works at the sports ground have installed new 100 lux LED lighting around the oval and 200 lux LED lighting at the main netball court, giving the more than 260 players additional opportunities to perfect their game.

MFNC President Jamie Fox said the lights would extend training hours but also improve safety for players. "There were lights only on one side of the netball court before, so they could only see half the ball," he laughed. "I don't know how they trained like that!"

The new lights will also help expand development programs and teams, giving more people the opportunity to play. "Our community has grown around clubs like the Bombers – the new lighting ensures there's more opportunity for locals to join in the fun and support local sport," Ms Edwards said. Ms Chesters pointed out that the new lighting was made possible by a collaboration between all levels of government and said it was great to see the funds directed to the small town of Maldon. Mayor of Mount Alexander Shire Councillor Matthew Driscoll pointed out that the lights also make sport more accessible. "Better lighting means more equitable and inclusive participation of women and girls in local sport too," he said.

The new lights were funded by all three tiers of government: Mount Alexander Shire contributed close to $60,000, with $200,000 from the State Government's Country Football and Netball Program and over $250,000 contributed by the Federal Government.

Heritage: hearing community views

MALDON Heritage Network is following up its successful first public presentation with a community meeting, to be held on Wednesday 18 September at 7.30pm at the Maldon Neighbourhood Centre.

The next event will continue the conversation about local heritage commenced at its event in July titled 'Maldon's Heritage: Why Does it Matter?' by Trevor Budge AM. Attended by approximately 70 people, Trevor's presentation placed Maldon in an international heritage context and traced the history of its heritage protection, its role in groundbreaking heritage planning practice in Victoria and the relevance of heritage today. A transcript of Trevor's talk can be found on the Maldon Museum and Archives Association website under 'Stories – Heritage Hero'.

The Maldon Heritage Network is a group of community members who share an interest in protecting, preserving and promoting Maldon's heritage, which is rich and varied. Whether it be an Aboriginal cultural heritage site, an old building, a significant tree, the remains of gold diggings, stories and oral histories, or long running events and groups, what makes heritage important is that it plays a role in local life: it is part of the continuum of a community's history and people's place in it. Local heritage is also fundamental to larger questions of development, land use, ownership, sustainability, community participation and design.

The group is keen to hear community views about Maldon and district's heritage, including any concerns or priorities that need addressing. These ideas will be collated and used to inform future directions for the group, which anyone is welcome to join.

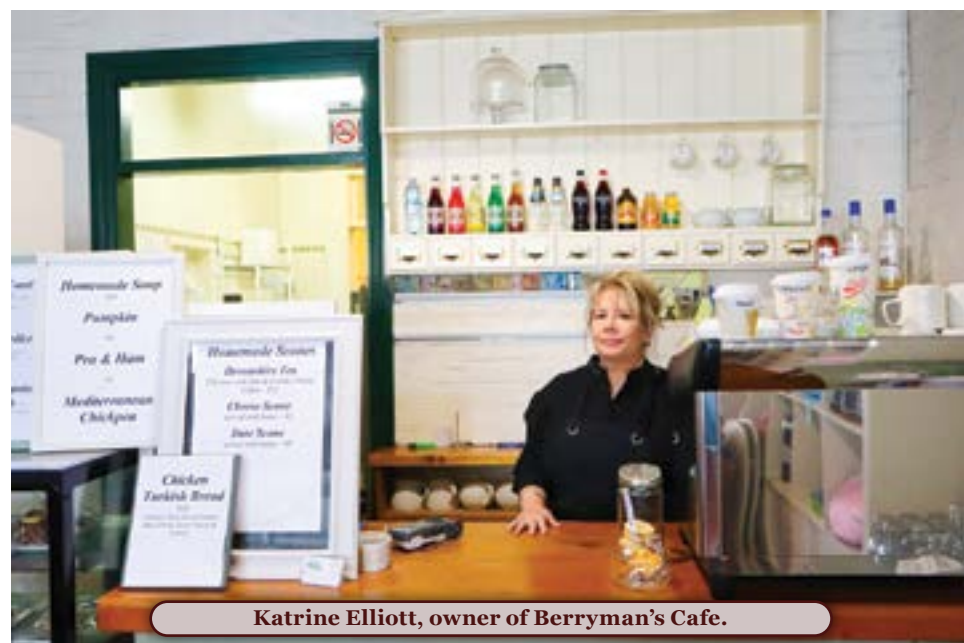

Everyone is welcome to the Maldon Heritage Network meeting on Wednesday 18 September at 7.30pm, Maldon Neighbourhood Centre. No RSVP is required, entry is by gold coin donation. Tea and coffee will be served.

Nostalgia as café closes

Katrine Elliott, owner of Berryman's Cafe.

IT seemed natural that café owner Katrine Elliott would reflect and become nostalgic when speaking about the closure of the business that she has steered through more than 17 years. The iconic Berryman's Café and Tearooms will cease operations on Sunday 29 September and hold a clearing sale in the following week.

Chatting to the Tarrangower Times last week, Katrine recalls the positive influence that it has had on her life. "I came to the country from the city and took over the business in June 2007," she says. "I was looking for a house but I found a café and it just ended up as a lovely opportunity."

Named after Berryman's boot shop, which was resident on the site from about 1890, the green-tiled façade has housed the eponymous café since the 1970s and has been managed more recently by Katrine's sister, Jess. Not only has the running of Berryman's Cafe been a family affair, but it helped Katrine to be more involved in her own growing family and the local community.

"My kids were young and it gave the flexibility to be involved in kinder and school activities," she said. "I've been on every committee, for every event. I've been able to be involved in a way that I wouldn't have been able to without the café, if I was doing a nine-to-five job." Katrine also credited the flexibility of cafe life with being able to pursue her long-held goal of becoming a nurse, which is now her primary career.

Since offering the business for sale, Berryman's Café has had many interested buyers but none who could commit; Katrine needed to make a decision about signing a new long-term lease. "It's a shame, because I tried to sell it and we had a lot of interest but everyone's circumstances are affected by the current economy,"

There are still a few weeks to enjoy a soup, a Reuben sandwich or a great coffee by Jess and everyone is welcome to the clearing sale commencing on Monday 30 September. Katrine will be taking offers for shop fittings, crockery, platters, kitchen equipment and fridges: everything must go. Bring a trailer and make an offer - the shop will be open all day every day for the week.

Berryman's Cafe is located at 30 Main Street, Maldon.

Bite size news and opportunities

STOP PRESS

Mount Alexander Council reached a decision about the proposed 16 block subdivision of 1 Lowther Street, at its monthly Council meeting on Tuesday 10 September. After considering reports relating to the proposed stormwater management strategy, Maldon Design Guidelines, arborist report, assessment of native vegetations, and despite Officers' recommendations to accept the proposal, the motion was not carried. Some Councillors expressed concerns about water drainage management, proximity to the mine and potential problems for future owners. Mayor Matthew Driscoll used his casting vote to reject the motion, saying, "I'm concerned about this in relation to the health and safety and the character of Maldon township." The matter has been deferred to a future Council meeting so that Officers can prepare grounds for refusal of the application.

R U OK? is a suicide prevention charity that aims to inspire and empower people to meaningfully connect with friends, family and colleagues who might be struggling with life. The organisation behind the day said that regular, meaningful conversations with the people close to you can help prevent small things from becoming big things. The reminder comes as 72% of Australians are reporting elevated levels of distress. However, R U OK? research has found 90% of people who are regularly asked R U OK? feel more supported, connected and cared about. That's why it is so important to Ask R U OK? Any Day of the year. ## New boat ramp for Laanecoore Reservoir

Laanecoore Reservoir is set to be home to a new boat ramp that will allow boaters, fishers and skiers to get the most out of the reservoir as part of Victorian Fisheries Authority's Better Boating infrastructure upgrade program. The project includes a new ramp to be constructed at Brownbill Recreation Area, the creation of additional car parks, foreshore improvements, and upgrades to the Aids to Navigation which help show boaters what speeds they can go in certain areas.

Goulburn-Murray Water (GMW) Loddon/Campaspe Storage Manager Paul Wakenshaw said the project was great news for visitors to the reservoir. "This will enhance safety and reduce congestion by separating high-speed boating areas from foreshore bathing zones, while also improving overall site accessibility," he said. Works will begin on 10 September and are expected to be complete by mid-October, weather permitting.

Don't delay triple zero call for stroke

Alarming new Stroke Foundation data has revealed Australians are putting themselves and others at risk by not knowing that a stroke is always a triple zero call. Stroke Foundation Chief Executive Officer, Dr Lisa Murphy, says: "When a stroke strikes, it attacks up to 1.9 million brain cells per minute, so it is absolutely critical that triple zero is called immediately to get the patient the emergency specialist treatment they need, as quickly as possible."

Stroke Foundation is urging all Australians to learn the F.A.S.T. acronym which highlights the common signs of stroke. F is for face-check their face, has their mouth drooped? A is for arms-can they lift both arms? S is for speech- is their speech slurred, do they understand you? And T is for time- time is critical, call triple zero immediately.

Cash flow concerns for small business

New figures from the Australian Small Business and Family Enterprise Ombudsman reveal a jump in requests for help from distressed business owners who are fearful that another business who owes them money has become insolvent or who are worried about their own ability to meet their financial commitments. The Ombudsman said payment disputes were an early warning sign of a cash flow problem and can have a ripple effect that threatens the viability of other businesses.

The number of requests for help with insolvency increased by 50 per cent. These included people considering insolvency and those concerned that an insolvent business owed them money.

About 20 per cent of requests for assistance relate to contract disputes while nine per cent involve a franchise disagreement, typically relating to contract renewals, breach of franchise agreement or early termination. Small and family businesses with a dispute can find more information and guidance on the ASBFEO website - asbfeo.gov.au - which also includes resources, check lists and tools.

Financial fact sheet for small businesses

The Australian Banking Association (ABA) has collaborated with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CAANZ), CPA Australia (CPA), and the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) to create a support-based factsheet for small business customers who might be struggling to make repayments. Many things can cause a business owner to have difficulties repaying their debts and it's easy to get overwhelmed in this situation. The factsheet builds on a campaign from the ABA which reminds customers facing financial difficulty that they don't need to 'tough it out on their own'. View the fact sheet at: tinyurl.com/yc7ha57v.

E-tickets for V/Line

State Minister for Public and Active Transport Gabrielle Williams announced last week that eTicketing will be available from Wednesday 18 September, giving passengers the option to display their tickets on their smartphone. The new electronic ticketing option will provide passengers with a link to their ticket via SMS or email when they make a reservation for a long-distance train or scheduled coach service - rather than visiting a staffed station to buy a ticket or have one mailed by post. The tickets will also cover additional travel on Victoria's public transport network, such as metropolitan trains, trams and buses, in the same way that a paper ticket currently does.

Passengers can still choose to collect tickets they have purchased online from their nearest staffed V/Line station, V/Line ticket agent, or premium Metro station, or have them sent via post before they travel.

Resources for farmers

Agriculture Victoria (AV) is encouraging farmers to take up ongoing support and assistance to help manage current difficult seasonal conditions. AV's Aimee McCutcheon said the Agriculture Victoria website explains what support is available to farmers, including financial support and assistance, mental health and wellbeing support. Ms McCutcheon said Agriculture Victoria offers extensive free practical information, resources, tools and calculators to help farmers with forward planning, feed budgeting and livestock management. Farmers are also encouraged to closely monitor their soil moisture and dam water levels over the coming months to ensure water availability is included in future planning. Agriculture Victoria manages soil moisture probes in various locations across the state, providing real time soil water content data by recording soil water content from 30cm down to 1 metre as a reference point for a paddock. Subscribe to the Soil Moisture Monitoring newsletter and find out more. Visit the Agriculture Victoria website for more information plus details of events coming up in your region or online: agriculture.vic.gov.au.

Unite to untangle illegal fruit netting

Wildlife authorities are putting the spotlight on the shocking extent of grey-headed flying-fox injuries and deaths from illegal netting entanglements, as organisations unite to educate community gardeners about wildlife-friendly fruit tree netting ahead of the spring growing season.

Since 1 September 2021, it has been illegal in Victoria to use or sell household fruit tree netting with a mesh size bigger than 5mm x 5mm, as larger mesh netting is more likely to entangle, distress, and seriously injure or kill animals. To help check if netting is compliant, try poking a finger through the mesh and if it can pass through, then it's too big. Community members should remove and stop using non-compliant netting immediately. For more information on how to protect both household fruit trees and wildlife, visit: tinyurl.com/fydexsva. To find a wildlife rescuer, call 136 186 or use the Help for Injured Wildlife Tool: wildlife.vic.gov.au/hfiw.

Busy blokes

Alan Hart, Rob Gibb and Allen Trounson of Maldon men's Shed.

Graeme Lees of Newstead Men's Shed.

THERE'S always heaps happening at a Men's Shed and there was no halting for Men's Shed Week, which was Sunday 1 September to Saturday 7 September. The TT popped in to visit the sheds at Newstead and Maldon, which were both hives of activity.

President of the Maldon Men's Shed Rob Gibb described the numerous ways that the shed members contribute their handiwork, including undertaking repairs and making signage. "We do stuff for the community," said

Rob as members tucked into their monthly communal barbecue. "But it's really all about men's health and we run talks about the resources you can tap into at the hospital or the pharmacy, as well as fire safety and even cooking classes." Rob says the shed attracts men of all ages. "Everybody brings different personalities, different skill sets, different attitudes," he said, adding that timber workshops for women are also offered fairly regularly and are very popular.

Meanwhile, Newstead Men's Shed was also buzzing as the members build projects and plenty of plans. Secretary Graeme Lees proudly showed off the nearly completed Office and Digital Hub, where members will have access to training in using electronic devices. With its slightly more commercial focus, the Newstead shed was getting ready for spring markets; members have been making useful objects, such as boot removers and plant stands, for sale at the Castlemaine Garden Market on Sunday 6 October.

The very busy blokes all made a point of saying that no skills are required. Recent Men's Shed convert Andrew said, "I've got no trade, I'm quite hopeless at all of this sort of thing and I'd like to say I'm learning, but really I just watch. I come for the social time, and they've been welcoming; they're a terrific lot." Find contact details for your nearest Men's Shed: mensshed.org.

Freemasons raise awareness and funds at Maldon Market

L-R Standing WBro. Arthur Lynch, WBro. Lesley Roberts, Mr. Ivan Priest, WBro. Laurie Hauser, Mr. William Priest and WBro. Bruce McCallum. Seated is the Worshipful Master of the Southern Cross Lodge WBro. Dusty Miller.

MEMBERS and friends of the Southern Cross Lodge No. 24 were present at the September Maldon Market, promoting Freemasonry and its charitable work within the local community. The group manned the gates, hosted a sausage sizzle, and distributed informative booklets and flyers highlighting the charitable efforts of Freemasons and the philanthropic contributions of the Freemasons Foundation Victoria, which has awarded over $280,000 in scholarships to 119 Victorian students.

Events like these help the Southern Cross Lodge support other charitable organisations, including Annie North Inc., while raising awareness of the positive impact Freemasonry has on communities.

Freemasonry is built on the principles of tolerance, equality, charity, and honour, providing members with a sense of belonging and opportunities for personal growth. If you believe you have what it takes to become a Freemason, the Southern Cross Lodge warmly welcomes new members. The lodge meets on the second Thursday of each month at 7.30pm, except in January, at the corner of Parker and High Streets in Maldon.

A special day for Maldon Kids Club

THE kids from Maldon Kids Club presented a big cheque to members of Special Olympics (SO) Bendigo last week, after raising funds with a running challenge. On Wednesday 28 August the kids ran a total of 100 laps around the Holy Trinity Church as part of their Olympics-themed activities last term.

SO Bendigo Swimming Coach Chris and swimmer Tara visited Maldon Bowls Club with a large group of Maldon kids, who enjoyed afternoon tea and practised bowling together. Tara, a talented swimmer who has attended many State and National events, wore her SO uniform and brought some medals to show the kids.

The kids told the TT that the running challenge was fun and not too difficult and that they enjoyed the oranges served afterwards. The third-tallest Grade One was particularly proud of his running achievement. Chris from SO Bendigo said the money will be gratefully received by SO Bendigo Club, which runs swimming and ten-pin bowling for around 30 participants with intellectual disability or autism. She said SO Bendigo is also always looking for volunteers who may be looking for experience or qualifications.

Event organiser Reverend Darcy Vaughan said, "The idea was to get the kids doing something and with the Olympics theme it seemed a great idea to run a fundraiser." Its success was demonstrated by the size of that big cheque: the kids raised $780.40!

NOW OR NEVER: SEE ELVIS IN CASTLEMAINE

THE Elvis Big Band is coming to Castlemaine in November to put on a spectacular show that is not to be missed! Celebrating the life and music of The King, this 14 piece tribute act is heading to Castlemaine for the first time as part of its 'Summer Series' tour and features music from across the incredible career of Elvis Presley. The TT was pretty excited to chat to lead singer of The Elvis Big Band, The Knave, to find out more.

"We cover all three decades," The Knave said. "We try and do our show differently every time; we'll play songs across all the eras or focus on the movie era or a replica of the 68 comeback special."

The Knave points out that while he wears the jumpsuits and styles his hair like Elvis, the show is a tribute by top-notch musicians and he is not an impersonator. "I don't think I'm him," he stated, bluntly, and described his banter between songs as a great conversation with the audience about the life and legend of Elvis. Having said that, audiences can still expect an almost Las Vegas scale experience, with authentic styling. "The costumes are exact replicas and made by the same costume makers used by Baz Luhrmann for the Elvis film; they have the license for the actual embroidered patterns." The Knave said. "And we have a giant lit set — huge — it stands over two and a half metres tall behind the drummer."

The Knave said he grew up listening to his dad's records and is still enjoying the challenge of singing and performing Elvis songs to a high standard. "The band started very small and then it grew into this 14 piece monster with horn section and backing singers; they're all amazing in their own right. I wanted to do something on par with what Elvis did when he was on fire," he said.

The chance to see The Elvis Big Band in a local venue is now, for fans of Elvis or just fans of great music. Gather a gang of friends together and take advantage of the group discount. Note that the show is fully seated for audience comfort. THE ELVIS BIG BAND is playing at the Theatre Royal, Castlemaine on Saturday 2 November 2024 from 7pm.

Natural Newstead

Great Egret, fishing

It is usual to see Great Egrets fishing around the margins at Cairn Curran.
 Small numbers are resident year round, almost always seen alone. This species doesn't breed locally, at least to my knowledge, so these individuals are probably sub-adults ... a few breeding plumes are often present.
 They prefer to hunt in still water, moving slowly with regular pauses before extending their snake-like neck in a flash to seize their prey, often a small fish. This individual was fishing in choppy conditions and undeterred was catching one small fish each minute or so.

Great Egret, fishing, Cairn Curran, 16 August 2024.

Festival of Graham plus bonus film

YOU may know Graham Pitts through his involvement in Maldon Chess Club, Social Pétanque or from his letters to the editor as President of The Society for The Prevention of Bad Jokes (Defunct). Graham is also President of Maldon Golden Movies and at the upcoming screening on Thursday 19 September, MGM will hold a short Festival of Graham to mark a significant birthday.

In his more than 10 years with Maldon Golden Movies, which he co-founded, Graham has proven himself to be knowledgeable, flexible, humorous, creative, wise and very talkative. While the committee hasn't always been able to realise Graham's many, many ideas for the film society, MGM has tried to observe his motto, to which he strictly adheres: 'Don't be boring'.

Following celebratory words about Graham's very significant birthday and associated cake, MGM will screen a delightful film called The Scent of Green Papaya (1993, France). Set in Vietnam and directed by Tran Anh Hung, whose recent film The Taste of Things was very popular, this is the story of a young servant girl who learns to find joy in small, sensuous experiences as she grows up working for a merchant family sliding into genteel poverty. The Scent of Green Papaya film won the Caméra d'Or prize at the 1993 Cannes Film Festival and should not be missed. MGM memberships are now $15 for the rest of the year, payable in cash at the door. Come along on Thursday 19 September from 7.15pm at Maldon Neighbourhood Centre. Generously sponsored by Maldon Bakery.

Eddington farmer offers premium biodynamic compost to enhance soil quality

DREW Symons has been a dedicated farmer in Eddington for seven years. He has embraced sustainable farming practices to avoid synthetic fertilisers and has developed a rich biodynamic compost that promises to rejuvenate the soil and improve crop yields.

Drew's compost is crafted from a blend of high-quality mulch, livestock manures, straw and blood and bone. Unlike many commercially available options, Drew's compost is guaranteed free of plastics and other contaminants, ensuring a pure and effective product for enhancing soil health.

Initially, Drew created this compost for his farm. However, after sharing some with a neighbouring farmer who was highly impressed with the results, Drew decided to increase production. He now offers this premium compost to the local community, priced at $75 per cubic metre.

Drew can arrange delivery, or you can collect the compost directly from the farm gate. With spring approaching, now is an ideal time to enrich your soil and boost your upcoming crop/garden yields.

Contact Drew directly for more information or to place an order. Take advantage of this opportunity to enhance your soil with high-quality, biodynamic compost.

Drew is now advertising in the TT Business & Services Directory weekly—phone: 0448 536 682.

Doggos OF THE Goldfields

Introducing our readers to their local doggies and what makes their tails wag!

TT: Lovely to meet you Briony! Although you seem familiar somehow.

Briony: Oddball.

TT: Pardon? It's true that it's unusual to go around interviewing dogs, but I —

Briony: No, no. It's the name of a movie: Oddball. It's about dogs like me! I might seem familiar if you've seen Oddball.

TT: Oh, I haven't seen it. Any good?

Briony: Based on a True Doggo. It stars that actor from the movie about portable toilets.

TT: Kenny?

Briony: Yes, he can, he's really good in both of them. Oddball is more of a family adventure story.

TT: I think we've gone a bit off track, Briony. What sort of dog are you?

Briony: Maremma, a sheep dog, but I don't guard sheep. I guard geese! A whole flock of them. A small flock, but it's a pretty important job. Little Albert and Genie are their names.

TT: Wow! What does the job involve?

Briony: Well, there's a lot of watching, waiting and being waterproof. Which I am because I have a special double coat. My main task is to alert the people if the geese are in danger.

TT: I see. That sounds pretty unusual, a dog that guards geese.

Briony: Actually dogs like me are so good at guarding that they are used to protect penguins on an island near Warrnambool! Dogs like me have been guarding in Italy for hundreds of years.

TT: Aha! And when you're guarding, how do you alert the people?

Briony: By barking. I'm not aggro or anything; I'm a Canine Alarm.

TT: Well it sounds —

Briony: I bark and bark.

TT: That's a —

Briony: Then I bark some more.

TT: Thanks Briony.

Briony: And I just keep barking.

TT: Oddball.

Briony is our Dog of the Week. 13 September, 2024.

Battle for Australia Day

LAST Wednesday the Maldon RSL Sub Branch conducted a commemorative service at the Maldon Cenotaph to honour the Battle for Australia Day. The commemoration recognises those defence personnel that fought so hard during WWII to defend our country from the threat of the Japanese.

The Battle of the Coral Sea, the Battle of Kokoda, the Bombing of Darwin, Townsville and the northern shores of Australia are all recognised as the fight for Australia.

We have, in recent times, commissioned local, Zoe Boyd Creative, to do our wreaths and she always provides us with a description of why she has chosen the flowers she uses.

I have included a copy of the transcript.

The wreath features golden wattle, the national floral emblem of Australia.

Together with the wattle are flowers and gum nuts of deep browns, like the beaches and coastlines surrounding Darwin, vibrant blue like our coastal waters and white like the clouds in our skies, all of which were so strongly fought for and defended during 1942 and 1943.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

THE KANGAROO DOG

RECENTLY an episode of Radio National's 'The History Listen' discussed the kangaroo dogs that were first bred about 1800 in Sydney by crossing Scottish deerhounds with greyhounds. Their ability to hunt and kill kangaroos provided early colonists with a plentiful supply of fresh meat. As the European occupation spread so did the kangaroo dogs. First Nations people also adopted them.

From the 1830s colonial hunting clubs were formed that used the dogs to hunt kangaroos for sport. In Victoria squatters bred packs of hound and frequently invited visiting dignitaries to join in their hunts. In 1858 S.T. Gill depicted these events in a series of lithographs entitled 'Kangaroo Hunting'.

In the late 1850s kangaroo hunts were held at Barin-guhp. The first reported event occurred on Tuesday 30 December 1856. 'Sportsmen' were invited to meet at Robert Lawrence's Loddon Hotel (now the Loddon Store) at 8 o'clock in the morning. The hunt was considered a success when more than 10 kangaroos were bailed up and three were killed by the dogs.

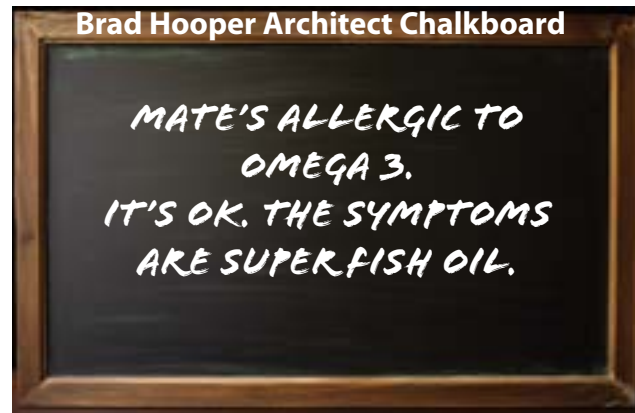

Lawrence organised further hunts from his hotel as did James Bloomfield the publican at the nearby Davenham Hotel. In May 1858 Maldon-based sportsmen, led by Hugh Pettitt, the owner of the Springs Hotel, formed the Nuggetty Hunt Club. Soon, at these hunts, kangaroo dogs competed against each other with bets being placed on the outcome. Among the outstanding dogs were Hugh Pettitt's Bomba and Turpain, a dog owned by John Lawlor of Barkers Creek.

Like many First Nations people the Dja Dja Wurrung also used kangaroo dogs. In 1860 Thomas Hannay moved to Maldon and purchased a stationery business in High Street. He had previously travelled through Western Victoria as a photographer. Among the photographs Hannay took after arriving in Maldon is one of a Dja Dja Wurrung camp near the Loddon River. The group photographed have two large, lean hounds that were almost certainly kangaroo dogs.

Locally kangaroo hunts declined in the early 1860s probably due to the introduction of European game species such as hares and rabbits that could be hunted with greyhounds and other smaller dogs. Many people however still owned kangaroo dogs and there were frequent references to them in the local press.

In March 1868 Donald Martin, head teacher at the Porcupine Flat Common School, was charged and found guilty of allowing his kangaroo dog to kill fowls owned by his neighbour George Searle. While Martin claimed his dog had never previously killed fowls, evidence was given that the dog frequently worried cows and chased young cattle. Martin was required to pay Searle damages and was also fined for keeping an unregistered dog.

HAT TRICKS AND FINALS FEVER

THIS Week we had plenty to keep our minds occupied, commencing with our regular Bridge afternoon and then later, 'glued' to the TV to watch the rise and fall of the AFL teams as they battled for the final flag! The 'Cats' well and truly sent 'Port' to the docks; the Hawks soared and swooped at the MCG and sent the 'Doggies' to their kennels. Swans 'water bombed' GWS and the Lion's roar scared off Carlton! Werner and Hanne welcomed a new baby great-grandson to spoil during the week also. Congratulations! What a week!

A prelude to the finals scenario saw Ken achieve his 'Hat-Trick' at last and ably assisted by partner Maree.

Ken always seems to manage the extra trick required, whether by orthodox means or just a gamble; he does it!

All the other players battled on well and were not that far behind when the results were finalised. It was interesting to hear the comments, "We won our contract but..." "Someone had doubled and won more points."

Or "If only I had listened to my partner's asking bids!" And so it went on during the afternoon!

A welcome respite was the break for afternoon tea where Annie's delicious cake was eagerly consumed and certainly helped us move on with more enthusiasm. Thank you Annie.

The scores were quickly tallied by Ken and Maree while the cards were re-shuffled by the 'shuffling team' and packed away ready for the next week's play. Our shufflers are always quick on the job and always must be very wary of making sure all boards are played. Just imagine the confusion when an unplayed board is shuffled accidentally!

Ken organised the computer scores and announced in first place, Maree and Ken with 42 points. 'Hat-trick Achieved!' Congratulations and very well done! Not far behind, say a 4-point margin, were Kevin and Judy Mac with 38 points. Werner and associates were third with 28 points and a few successful doubles certainly helped achieve the same! Liz and Aileen were fourth with 26 points and were followed by Newstead Jo and Annie, one point away with 25 points and still lamenting the loss to the doubling fiascos!

That is it for this week until we meet again!

Whatever your age group or skills please feel free to join us each Thursday 1pm to 4.30pm to help us in our endeavours to

Library News

THE annual Dementia Action Week is held in September and there are a number of community groups in Maldon whose activities fit this year's theme: 'Act Now for a Dementia-Friendly Future'.

Around two-thirds of people with dementia live in the community, yet research shows that more than 60 per cent of people would rather not think about dementia. A lack of knowledge and understanding of dementia leads to people living with dementia experiencing stigma, discrimination, social isolation, loneliness and not seeking help. Social participation in the community can come to a standstill once a diagnosis is made, which is why dementia-friendly communities are important.

Maldon Athenaeum Library previously received a grant from Tarrangower Dementia Alliance (TDA) to help break down the stigma and create a Dementia-Friendly future for Maldon. The group is auspiced by the Maldon Neighbourhood Centre with Dhelkaya Health and Mt Alexander Shire Council as supporting members. With these funds, the Maldon Athenaeum Library has been able to facilitate small but significant changes that will help the Athenaeum become more accessible to all in the community. From the funding and with the help of a walk-through audit by one of the TDA members who has Dementia, a number of changes have been actioned:

- Name Badges: Coloured Lanyards and large font used on the Volunteers' name badges make the Duty Volunteers more recognisable to approach.
- Toilet Block: sensory colours help members differentiate the floor from walls, including the toilet seat cover.
- Signs to locate the toilet block, both outside and inside the building.
- Colour, larger size and font of the shelving labels to make it easier to read for those facing sensory issues,
- Yellow lines on the outside steps leading to the front entrance to help ensure safety for those with depth perception difficulties.

The library will be adding a map of the library for the website. There will be colours for each room, to help people living with dementia and their carers to navigate through the library.

Come walk with us On Tuesday 17 September 2024, Tarrangower Dementia Alliance, Maldon Croquet Club and the Maldon Athenaeum Library invite you to take a walk with us to see what small but significant changes can be done to keep our local community Dementia Friendly. Leaving at 10.30am from Maldon Neighbourhood Centre, a walk to the Maldon Croquet Club, across to the Athenaeum Library, then returning to the starting point. The walk finishes around 11.30am, with a morning tea and talks by Tarrangower Dementia Alliance members.

People who need dementia assistance for themselves or loved ones they are caring for should call the National Dementia Helpline on 1800 100 500.

If you are interested in being involved in the Tarrangower Dementia Alliance, please contact Maldon Neighbourhood Centre.

Interested in doing a bit of reading about dementia? Some recommended books available at the library are What I Wish People Knew About Dementia, Somebody I Used To Know by Wendy Matthews and Still Alice by Lisa Genova.

Book Reviews

Somebody I used to Know* by Wendy Mitchell, 2018

Wendy Mitchell had a busy job with the British National Health Service, raised her two daughters alone and spent her weekends running and climbing mountains. Then, slowly, a mist settled deep inside the mind she once knew so well, blurring the world around her. She didn't know it then, but dementia was starting to take hold. In 2014, at age 58, she was diagnosed with young-onset Alzheimer's.

Mitchell shares the heartrending story of her cognitive decline and how she has fought to stave it off. What lay ahead of her after the diagnosis was scary and unknowable, but Mitchell was determined and resourceful, and she vowed to outwit the disease for as long as she could.

As Mitchell learned to embrace her new life, she began to see her condition as a gift, a chance to experience the world with fresh eyes and to find her own way to make a difference. Even now, her sunny outlook persists: she devotes her time to educating doctors, caregivers, and other people living with dementia, helping to reduce the stigma surrounding this insidious disease.

Still Alice* by Lisa Genova, 2007

Still Alice is a compelling debut novel about a 50-year-old woman's sudden descent into early-onset Alzheimer's disease, written by first-time author Lisa Genova, who holds a PhD in neuroscience from Harvard University.

Alice Howland, happily married with three grown children and a house on the Cape, is a celebrated Harvard professor at the height of her career when she notices a forgetfulness creeping into her life. As confusion starts to cloud her thinking and her memory begins to fail her, she receives a devastating diagnosis: early-onset Alzheimer's disease. Fiercely independent, Alice struggles to maintain her lifestyle and live in the moment, even as her sense of self is being stripped away. In turns heartbreaking, inspiring and terrifying, Still Alice captures in remarkable detail what it's like to literally lose your mind.

The Lost Girls* by Jennifer Spence, 2019

What would you do if you had the chance to change a pivotal moment from your past? How far would you go to save someone you loved? These are just two of the fateful choices a woman must face in this highly original and hauntingly evocative detective story of love and loss. At the core of the enigmatic Stella's story, past and present, is a mystery she is compelled to solve of a beautiful young woman who went missing 50 years ago and a tragedy much closer to home she must try to prevent. As Stella unravels the dark secrets of her family's past and her own, it becomes clear that everyone remembers the past differently and the small choices we make every day can change our future irrevocably.

IN MALDON TODAY RADIO PROGRAM

TODAY Slats and Tony will be talking with former ABC presenter Nicole Chvastek about the state of the ABC, the current quality of media and journalism and public expectations, the aged care system, voluntary euthanasia and what we think happiness is all about. That's a whole lot; you had better listen.

Last Friday EC, Ann and Nancy learned much about local government, Democracy Dinners and the Really Local Movement in an insightful chat with Bryn Davies (pictured). He explained how the dinners have developed since 2016, a Mount Alexander-based platform for exploring policy issues in various venues. With friends and locals, Bryn launched the Really Local movement this year to connect community to government and get people engaged in what council does and why it matters. They have held events in Castlemaine, Maldon and Wesley Hill and will be running a series of Meet-the-Candidates shortly to inform people before they vote.

Next week Loz and Papa Loz and Parko will sweet-talk Ellen Gladman from the Maldon Lolly Shop. What a treat.

Run the Maine: A community event supporting local Health Services

THE annual Run the Maine event, a vital fundraiser for Dhelkaya Health (encompassing Castlemaine Hospital, Maldon Hospital, and Community Health Services), is set to take place on Friday 27 September coinciding with the AFL Grand Final Public Holiday. This year's activities will begin bright and early, with the first event kicking off at 8am.

The day's highlight is the 21km Half Marathon, offering a unique twist as runners begin their journey with a scenic steam train ride from Castlemaine to Maldon, where the race will officially start. Participants will follow a picturesque route, running alongside the Goldfields Railway line on fire trails and paths, passing through bushland and open paddocks. The race finishes at the Camp Reserve in Castlemaine, making for a scenic and challenging course.

The event also features 10km and 5km runs for those seeking shorter distances. The 5km route is especially popular for all abilities, offering a flat and mostly shaded course through the beautiful Botanical Gardens – great for first timers. Runners return to the Camp Reserve for the finish. The 10km run is a real challenge and meets up with the 21km run.

Run the Maine offers a fun and engaging community event and plays a crucial role in supporting local healthcare services. All proceeds from the event go directly to Dhelkaya Health, helping fund essential services for the Castlemaine and Maldon communities.

If you'd like to participate in this fantastic event, secure your spot today by visiting Run the Maine. Whether you're running for the challenge or simply for the cause, your participation will benefit our local health services.

Maldon Bowls Club

OUR final game of Winter Pairs at Dunolly saw our two teams have mixed results. Geoff and Mike drew the first but won the next two games. These two players have teamed together really well and will be very hard to beat in the future.

Peter and Trevor had a win, a draw and a loss. However they did win the rolling Jackpot prize. Trevor has shown amazing improvement in his first season.

Goldfield triples has begun with our club hosting 14 teams on Wednesday. It was pleasing to see two new teams from Harcourt.

Last week 24 children from the Maldon Kids Club attended for their term breakup. There was plenty of bowling, some afternoon tea and a presentation by visitors from the Bendigo Special Olympics. The children also presented a cheque to the Special Olympics for $780.40, which they had raised during the term.

*Don't forget our next community BBQ night on Friday 20 September. Classic Rewind are a great live music group not to be missed. Many new raffle prizes, and bowling fun for the whole family. Hope to see you there.

Good Bowling all.

Inexplicable weather does not stop play

ON Sunday 8 September, despite a sudden heavy downfall just before 2pm, six teams of eager Piste Artistes arrived at the Penny School Piste as the next weather change swiftly followed. Wind, drizzle and sun continued to alternate throughout the afternoon, somewhat distracting the players from achieving their best performances. It must be remembered it is an all-weather all-terrain game. We welcomed two visitors, James and Caroline.

Once the games were in full swing one player commented, "my hand held on, when my mind said let go." Which can only be attributed to the changeable conditions. It caused her to do what she described as a blonde shot!

Eventually the overall winners were Viv, André and Joan, with +16 points. They were followed in second place by EC, Cap'n P and Mme Bleue, with +14 points. Third place was taken by Jenny, Kevin and Caroline with +5 points. Fourth place went to Carole, Steve and James with 1 win and -7 points. Maxeen, Geoff and Ann took fifth place with 0 wins and -7 points. While Marianne, Antoine and Barb were lucky last with -21 points and they were excited to get chocolates! As were the winners!

As we drove away, the rain came down AGAIN, followed by bright sunlight.

Our next games will be on Sunday 22 September at 1.45pm for a 2pm start on the Penny School Piste. Come and join us. Call 0459 093 452 if you would like to be in a team to have a bit of active fun. All you need is a set of boules, a good sense of humour and a variety of clothing.

Maldon Football Netball Club Finals – Week Three

Overview

WEEK three of the finals was the preliminaries to make it to the Grand Final on 14 September. Maldon had both the Under 17.5s football and the Under 17s netball still in and both teams secured themselves a spot in this week's Grand Final.

Monday Night was the senior league vote count and it was a fantastic night for the Maldon FNC with Damian Wust taking out the top honours winning the Berry Powell Medal.

Damian also made the 2024 MCDFNL Team of the Year along with Brodie-Leonard-Shannon.

Georgia Spokes also made the MCDFNL Netball team of the year as the co-ordinator.

Congratulations to all award winners.

Football Under17.5s

Maldon 7.1-43 Def Maryborough Giants 6.5-41

An absolutely thrilling game was played out on Sunday which saw Maldon progress through to the Grand Final with a two-point victory over Maryborough Giants. Maldon trailed in the dying stages of the game until a brilliant goal from young gun Brodie Doyle put the Dons in front with under a minute left on the clock.

Best on: Cal Buchanan, Brodie Doyle, Nash Turner, Daniel Zammit, Tadgh Cananzi, Thomas Smith.

Netball Under 17s

Maldon 38 Def Harcourt 18

The team hit the ground running right from the first whistle and showed just what they were capable of in finals. The score at the first change being 11 – 3 Maldon's way. With an excellent start, the team were able to relax and play an excellent game. The shooters were all on fire, and with the defence tight, the mid-court was able to get many turnovers with held balls by Harcourt. It was a brilliant team display by the Maldon girls to take a very decisive victory to earn their spot in the big dance 2024 Grand Final.
